

Dear Sirs:

A do not call list should be a true do not call list, not one with exceptions. People who are on such a list have a right to not be called. Being a former customer or even a current customer should not give a company the right to try to sell additional products or reinstate service. Our WI law is perfect the way it is -- NO EXCEPTIONS.

Thank you,
G. Yuri Ripeckyj